Re: Registration Fees for Dentistry/Medicine/Pharmacy Residents

---

At the May 2012 meeting of Senate, a question arose from the floor on how resident fees are allocated. At present, the fees are as follows:

MD Residents: $381.37
DMD Residents: $381.37
Pharmacy Residents: $80.42

For all three programs, 75% of the fee is allocated back to the faculty administering the residency program, and 25% is kept centrally to account for centralized services, which includes the UBC Library system. There is no set percentage of the fee nor dollar value assigned to the Library's budget per resident.

Should senators require more detailed information, I would direct you to contact the University Comptroller, Ian Burgess directly at ian.burgess@ubc.ca.
