- b. The Senate may acquiesce in a recommendation or motion without a vote. This is an indication of the will of the Senate should the minutes reporting the concurrence be adopted without challenge.
- c. The Chair has the same voting rights as other members of the Senate. In the event of an equal number of votes for and against a motion, the motion shall be lost.

- d. A motion may be presented and voted upon with or without discussion.
- e. A motion on the floor of the Senate may be referred to a committee by the carrying of a second motion to this effect, which is debatable and is passed by a simple majority.
- f. A motion to postpone consideration of a motion on the floor of the Senate may be moved at any time. If seconded, a motion to postpone consideration is debatable. If the motion to postpone is carried by simple majority, no further discussion of the original motion is allowed; if the motion to postpone is lost, debate of the initial motion may continue.
- g. A motion to "lay on the table" the pending motion halts consideration of the pending motion immediately. It must be seconded, is not debatable and may be passed by a simple majority. It should be employed only when the Senate wishes to lay the pending motion aside temporarily when a matter of immediate urgency has arisen.
- h. A motion to amend a motion on the floor of the Senate may be moved at any time. If seconded, the motion to amend may be debated and voted upon, to be passed by simple majority. Regardless of the outcome, debate of the original motion may continue, with further motions of amendments proposed and voted upon. Once all discussions are complete, including voting upon all motions of amendment, the original motion in amended form if such amendments were carried, is put to a vote in its entirety.

- i. Upon the agreement of the Senate in the form of a motion to such effect, which is not debatable and is passed by a simple majority, a motion on the floor may be split into two or more parts, with each part to be debated and voted upon separately. The defeat of one part of a motion so divided does not automatically defeat the other parts of the split motion.
- j. When two motions on the agenda are at variance, the Chair may rule that consideration of the second motion is unnecessary if the first is passed. If the first motion is lost, the second may then be considered.
- k. A motion to rescind a motion requires a vote of two-thirds majority in the affirmative to pass, or, if a notice of motion has been given, a simple majority in the affirmative to pass.
- l. A motion to adjourn may be made at any time. When seconded, it is not debatable, must be voted upon immediately and requires a simple majority vote in the affirmative to pass.
- m. Any ruling or action of the Chair with regard to motions or any other matter may be challenged. Such a challenge is generally not debatable, shall be voted upon by the Senate and is sustained by a simple majority. Before the vote, the Chair may state the reasoning for the ruling or action without entering into debate.
- n. To refer any matter to the Council of Senates requires a vote of 2/3rds in the affirmative of those present and eligible to vote. This section shall have no effect unless the Vancouver Senate establishes and maintains a rule to the same effect.
- o. Sections 19 (c) through (e) notwithstanding, no motion to refer any matter to the Council of Senates may be considered by Senate unless notice of motion has been made at the previous meeting of Senate. This section shall have no effect unless the Vancouver Senate establishes and maintains a rule to the same effect.
- p. If notice of motion to refer to the Council of Senates has been made under Section 21 (o), the Agenda Committee shall be responsible for considering and making a recommendation to the Senate by its next meeting on the disposition of the motion, except in such cases where notice of motion is given by a committee of Senate. This section shall have no effect unless the Vancouver Senate establishes and maintains a rule to the same effect.

20. Senators may only attend and participate in debate at Meetings of Senate in person.

21. Section 20 notwithstanding, the chancellor or President may participate in debate via videoconference upon recognition of the chair, but shall not be considered in attendance while doing so; their participation in such a manner shall be minuted appropriately.
