V-127: Diploma Programs

Effective Date:

1 September 2023

Approval Date:

15 February 2023

Review Date:

This policy shall be reviewed five (5) years after approval and thereafter as deemed necessary by the Responsible Committee.

Responsible Committee:

Curriculum

Authority:

University Act, S. 37(1)

“The academic governance of the university is vested in the senate and it has the following powers:

...(f) to consider, approve and recommend to the board the revision of courses of study, instruction and education in all faculties and departments of the university...

and,

...(h) to provide for and to grant degrees, including honorary degrees, diplomas and certificates of proficiency, except in theology;”...
University Act, S. 40

“A faculty has the following powers and duties:

...(d) to determine, subject to the approval of the senate, the courses of instruction in the faculty”...

Purpose and Goals:

This policy is designed to:

1) Define Diploma Programs;
2) Establish categories for and associated admission requirements for Diploma Programs;
3) Outline criteria for establishment of Diploma Programs;
4) Delineate an approval process for Diploma Programs;
5) Define where Academic and Administrative responsibilities for Diploma Programs lie; and
6) Define the parameters for double-counting of credits and Laddering opportunities.

Applicability:

This policy is applicable to all Diploma Programs, approved on or after the effective date of this policy, offered by the University through the faculties of the Vancouver campus.

Exclusions:

None.

Definitions:

For the purposes of this policy:

Course of Instruction shall mean a course assigned a credit value and designated by an alpha-numeric course code which is offered by a faculty and approved by the Vancouver Senate.

Course of Study shall mean a sequence of Courses of Instruction and other requirements approved by the Vancouver Senate to constitute a degree, diploma, certificate or other academic program, or part thereof, such as a major, minor, or specialization.

Diploma Program shall mean a Course of Study approved by the Vancouver Senate that conforms to the requirements of this policy.
Laddering shall mean the application of credit earned as part of a completed Course of Study towards a specified Course of Study.

Previously-Earned UBC Credit shall mean academic credit earned at The University of British Columbia (Okanagan or Vancouver campuses) prior to a student’s registration in a Course of Study.

Transfer Credit shall mean academic credit earned at a post-secondary institution other than The University of British Columbia (Okanagan or Vancouver campuses) or through a program other than one offered by The University of British Columbia (Okanagan or Vancouver campuses) for which credit applicable towards the completion of a Course of Study is granted.

Policy:

1) Categories of Diploma Programs

a. Undergraduate Diploma
   i. Minimum admission requirements are normally equivalent to UBC Vancouver general undergraduate-level admission requirements including the English Language Admission Standard, and program-specific admission requirements.
   ii. Program completion should normally require 30-60 undergraduate course credits (those numbered 100 to 499). Where course credits are outside this range, proponents must provide an academic rationale for the variation.
   iii. Academic rigor and assessment level should be equivalent to UBC’s undergraduate degree programs.

b. Post-baccalaureate Diploma
   i. Minimum admission requirements are normally equivalent to UBC Vancouver general undergraduate-level admission requirements including the English Language Admission Standard, and program-specific admission requirements. An undergraduate degree from a recognized post-secondary institution will also normally be required.
   ii. Program completion should normally require at least 30-60 upper-division course credits (those numbered 300 to 499). Where course credits are outside this range, proponents must provide an academic rationale for the variation.
   iii. Academic rigor and assessment level should be equivalent to the upper-division (300- or 400-level) of UBC’s undergraduate degree programs.
c. Graduate Diploma
   i. Minimum admission requirements are normally equivalent to those of the Faculty of Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies for admission to a master’s program.
   ii. Program completion should normally require 16-28 course credits, of which at least 50% must be numbered 500 to 699. Where course credits are outside this range, proponents must provide an academic rationale for the variation.
   iii. Academic rigor and assessment level should be equivalent to UBC’s graduate degree programs.
   iv. Academic regulations will normally follow Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies policies.
   v. May be combined with master’s or doctoral degrees to create dual degree/diploma programs.

d. The formal title of any Diploma Program must include the title of the Diploma Program category to which it belongs.

e. Non-credit Diploma Programs shall not be approved.

2) Establishment Criteria

a. In order to be considered for Senate approval, a proposed Diploma Program must:
   i. Consist of subject matter appropriate to university-level teaching;
   ii. Align with a Diploma Program category as defined in this policy;
   iii. Focus on a clear purpose, such as skills acquisition, disciplinary or interdisciplinary knowledge enhancement, career progression and professional development, or a combination of the aforementioned;
   iv. Demonstrate a cohesive theme through an integrated sequence of learning opportunities and include a coherent organization around clearly-defined learning objectives and outcomes, assessed in an academically rigorous manner that is consistent with University standards;
   v. Clearly indicate credit requirements and any Transfer Credit regulations, and required timeframe for completion; and
   vi. Be operationally viable, as determined by the Dean(s) of the responsible faculty or faculties and the Office of the Provost and Vice-President Academic.
3) Approval Process

a. Diploma Programs require the approval of the proposing faculty or faculties, the Senate Curriculum Committee (program requirements), Senate Admissions Committee (admission requirements), Senate, and Board of Governors.

b. New Courses of Instruction that will form part of a Diploma Program must be approved in the manner by which new Courses of Instruction are typically approved.

c. Proposals to create new Courses of Instruction that will form part of a Diploma Program must demonstrate academic rigor equivalent to that which is normally required for a Course of Instruction.

4) Academic Calendar Inclusion

a. Admission and program completion requirements of approved Diploma Programs must appear in the Academic Calendar.

5) Credit Recognition and Transfer Credit to a Diploma Program

a. Previously-Earned UBC Credit and Transfer Credit from external institutions will be accepted as determined by the receiving Diploma Program in accordance with University regulations. At least 50% of the credits applied towards a Diploma Program must be UBC credits.

6) Administrative Responsibility

a. Administrative responsibility for undergraduate and post-baccalaureate Diploma Programs offered by the faculties will be held by the proposing faculty.

b. Administrative responsibility for graduate Diploma Programs will be held by the Faculty of Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies. Responsibilities may be delegated to other units, according to the procedures included in this policy.

7) Academic Responsibility

a. Academic responsibility for undergraduate and post-baccalaureate Diploma Programs offered by the faculties will be held solely by the faculties.
b. Academic responsibility for graduate Diploma Programs will be held by the Faculty of Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies. Responsibility for development and delivery of academic instruction will be held solely by the faculties.

8) Student Rights and Responsibilities

a. Students registered in Diploma Programs have all the rights and responsibilities of UBC Students as set out in the University Act, RSBC 1996, c 468, and University policy and regulations.

b. For purposes of tuition and fee regulation and services provided, individuals registered in Diploma Programs shall be registered as students in the appropriate credential category and classification.

9) Conferral

a. Upon successful completion of a Diploma Program, a notation on the Student’s academic transcript will be made indicating that the Diploma Program has been completed.

b. Indication of the Diploma Program category (academic level), as defined in this policy, should be noted on the academic transcript, and parchment This is accomplished by including the title of one of the Diploma Program categories identified in this policy in the title of the Diploma Program.

c. Graduates of Diploma Programs are granted a diploma by Senate and will receive a diploma parchment issued and signed by University representatives, typically representatives of the faculty or faculties offering the Diploma Program.

d. Graduates of Diploma Programs attend the convocation ceremony.

10) Double-Counting of Credits

a. Credits earned in Courses of Instruction applicable towards a Diploma Program may only be applied towards another Course of Study with the approval of Senate, the faculty or faculties offering the Course of Study, and the faculty or faculties offering the Diploma Program. Normally, credits must be earned within five years of commencement of the Course of Study. A request to apply credits completed more than five years prior to the start of the Course of Study will be reviewed on a case by case basis by the faculty or faculties offering the Course of Study, or in the case of graduate programs, the Faculty of Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies.
b. Credits that have been applied towards a Diploma Program may not be counted towards another Diploma Program.

11) Laddering from a Diploma Program

a. A successfully completed Diploma Program may only be laddered into a related Course of Study if permitted by the receiving Course of Study regulations and not otherwise prohibited by any University, campus, faculty, program, or other policy or regulation. If so permitted by the receiving Course of Study, some or all credits may ladder, at the discretion of the receiving Course of Study. Successful completion of a Diploma Program does not guarantee admission into any other Course of Study.

12) Concurrent Registration in a Diploma Program and another Course of Study

a. A student registered in a Course of Study may concurrently register in a Diploma Program if allowed by the regulations of each Course of Study and not otherwise prohibited by any University, campus, faculty, program, or other policy or regulation.
